

INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Labovitz School of Business Internship Program provides resources and support to help students explore, prepare, and attain internships within a wide range of businesses and organizations.

The goal of the internship program is to provide students work-integrated learning experiences that allows them the opportunity to explore their major and apply their knowledge from the classroom to real-world situations. In turn, students will be able to contribute to projects and workplace tasks in a variety of business settings. As a result, students improve their business acumen, professional relationships, and applied knowledge within their major of study. These experiences will help to prepare them for future careers and classroom engagement.

EMPLOYER TESTIMONIAL

“This is a nice program with a good mix of online and onsite experience that really helps the student be better prepared to enter the workforce after graduation.”

BENEFITS OF AN INTERNSHIP

Internships can provide students and employers a mutually beneficial experience. Some examples include, but are not limited to the following:

Students:

- Obtain credit towards their major course requirements
- Opportunity to explore interests and discover careers related to their major
- Apply their knowledge and develop new skills in a professional setting
- Develop new relationships with people in their chosen field

Employers:

- Opportunity to bring new talent and ideas into their organization
- Contribute to the learning experience and mentorship of students
- Learn about new technologies and processes
- Identify prospective recruits to your organization
- Offer current employees leadership opportunities through internship supervision

My internship
“will launch me
into my career,
and someday help
me to start my own business.”

APPLYING & DEVELOPING YOUR SKILLS

The goal of the School is to prepare students to assume responsible positions in business and other organizations. Internships provide students the learning opportunities to apply their knowledge and gain experience prior to entering the workforce upon graduating.

We feel that a new category could be added reading “Exceeds, exceeded expectations. Our intern melded with the workplace culture and team environment, was unafraid to take a risk when necessary and pleasantly displayed customer care at all times.”
