CONSTITUTION

Labovitz School of Business and Economics
University of Minnesota Duluth

Approval:

Approved by the LSBE Senate
December 21, 2005
CONSTITUTION

Labovitz School of Business and Economics

University of Minnesota Duluth

PREAMBLE

The mission of the Labovitz School of Business and Economics (hereinafter called LSBE) is to contribute to the intellectual growth and development of individuals to enhance their competence in business and management. This mission is achieved through teaching, research and service activities. The primary focus of LSBE is on teaching by offering a high quality undergraduate program to students primarily from Minnesota. Additionally LSBE offers part time evening and weekend MBA programs to practitioners in selected regions in Minnesota. The secondary focus is on intellectual contributions. LSBE places primary emphasis on applied scholarship, but basic research and instructional development are also valued as important parts of LSBE intellectual contributions. LSBE also provides community, professional and institutional service and outreach with an emphasis on community service and outreach and the interface of these activities with teaching and intellectual contributions. LSBE adopts this Constitution to facilitate the achievement of this mission.

ARTICLE I. GENERAL POWERS

All matters relating to the mission of LSBE consistent with actions or policies of the Regents of the University of Minnesota heretofore and hereafter taken or established are committed to the Chancellor, the Dean, and the LSBE Senate (hereafter called the Senate) as herein provided. The authority of the Senate shall be exercised subject to the provisions of Regents' policies, as amended from time to time, including collective bargaining agreements as approved by the Regents.

ARTICLE II. DEAN
SECTION 1. Executive Officer

The Dean shall be the chief representative and executive officer of LSBE and shall have general administrative authority over LSBE. The Dean, in consultation with the Senate, shall provide leadership for formulating policies, for introducing and testing educational ideas and proposals, and for stimulating discussions leading to improvement of the educational programs of LSBE.

SECTION 2. Budgets

The Dean shall be accountable for the expenditure of funds and shall be responsible for the preparation and presentation of budget recommendations to the Chancellor. The budget shall be prepared and allocated by the Dean in consultation with Departments and other administrative units of LSBE.

SECTION 3. Suspension of Actions

In the event that the Dean suspends implementation of any recommendation made by the Senate or any of its standing committees, the Dean shall provide a written explanation for the suspension and ask for reconsideration of such recommendation.

SECTION 4. Selection and Appointment of the Dean

The Chancellor, following an appropriate search process in which tenured faculty from LSBE constitute a majority of the Search Committee, shall recommend to the President and Board of Regents the appointment of the Dean. The Dean shall be eligible for reappointment. The length of the initial appointment and any reappointments shall be consistent with University policies.

At the beginning of the last year of an appointive term, or earlier if the Chancellor feels it is appropriate, the Chancellor shall review the status, progress, and effectiveness of the Dean's administration. At any time during the Dean's term, a special committee consisting of LSBE Department Heads shall conduct a referendum of the Senate on the status of the Dean at the written request of 20 percent of the voting members of the Senate or at the request of the Dean. A petition for a referendum shall be submitted to the special committee of Department Heads. If a majority of the members of the Senate cast ballots in favor of the Dean's removal from office, the special committee shall request the Chancellor to initiate a review immediately.

ARTICLE III. ORGANIZATION OF LSBE

SECTION 1. Units

The administrative organization of LSBE shall be in the form of academic Departments, the Center for Economic Development, the Bureau of Business and Economic Research, the Center for Economic Education and other administrative units as are determined by the administration in consultation with the Senate.

A recommendation of the Senate for the establishment and disestablishment of any such units shall require at least two thirds approval of the Senate membership.

SECTION 2. Administration of Academic Units

a. Each Department shall have a Department Head and the other administrative units shall have Directors.

b. Each Department shall elect a nominee for Department Head and the Dean shall recommend appointments for Department Heads to the Chancellor. The Dean shall also recommend the appointment of Directors to the Chancellor.

c. Department Heads and Directors shall serve at the discretion of the Dean and shall perform such administrative duties as shall be assigned to them.

d. Recommendations on recruitment of faculty shall be made by the Department concerned to the LSBE Search Committee, which shall forward its recommendation to the Dean.

e. Faculty and non-faculty staff may participate in Departmental governance, except where such participation would be inconsistent with University/LSBE policy or relevant collective bargaining agreements.

SECTION 3. Student Representation
Academic Departments and other administrative units may select one or more student representatives to participate in Departmental or administrative unit governance, except where such participation would be inconsistent with University/LSBE policy or relevant collective bargaining agreements, or is deemed to be inappropriate by a majority of the voting members of the Department/administrative unit.

SECTION 4. Advisory Boards

Subject to approval of the Administrative Committee and Dean, LSBE, Academic Departments, and other administrative units may appoint advisory boards to provide input to policy determination and other activities of the unit(s). The composition, mission and activities of these boards shall be at the discretion of the unit(s), except where this would be inconsistent with University/LSBE policies or relevant collective bargaining agreements.

ARTICLE IV. ADMINISTRATIVE FUNCTIONS

SECTION 1. Administrative Committee

The Administrative Committee will evaluate the effectiveness of recommended or established policies as well as recommend policy changes, deletions and additions to the Dean and to appropriate faculty members and Departments. The Administrative Committee shall administer the requirements for admission to LSBE and the academic requirements for each program offered by LSBE to its students, and shall determine their academic standing, honors or probation. Information and data needed to make these evaluations and recommendations shall be made available to the Administrative Committee by the Dean and faculty members of LSBE. The Administrative Committee shall set the agenda for meetings of the Senate. The members of the Administrative Committee shall be the Dean, the Associate Dean, Heads of the academic Departments, the LSBE MBA Director and the Assistants to the Dean. Members not holding faculty appointments shall not have voting rights on curriculum, academic policy and faculty merit decisions. The Administrative Committee may establish sub-committees or assign specific tasks from time to time as the committee deems appropriate. The Dean or the Associate Dean shall be the presiding officer of the Administrative Committee or any sub-committee.

SECTION 2. LSBE Search Committee

The Dean shall annually appoint an LSBE Search Committee which shall include at least one representative from each Department in LSBE. The purpose of the LSBE Search Committee shall be to make recommendations on recruitment of faculty for LSBE to the Dean.

SECTION 3. Dean's Ad Hoc Committees

The Dean may form, implement, or dissolve ad hoc advisory committees which may include or be composed of members of the faculty, the community, business persons, or students. Such committees may be appointed for a period of one year or less and may report solely to the Dean.

SECTION 4. Non-Faculty Staff

The Dean shall be responsible for all appropriate matters relating to non-faculty staff employed by LSBE. The non-faculty staff of LSBE shall be comprised of all individuals holding full-time and part-time Professional and Administrative and civil service appointments in LSBE.

ARTICLE V. LSBE SENATE

SECTION 1. Composition

The Senate shall be composed of the President, Chancellor, Dean, LSBE faculty representatives, LSBE non-faculty staff representatives, and student representatives as hereinafter specified.

a. The LSBE faculty representatives of the Senate shall consist of all those individuals who hold full-time appointments with academic rank of Instructor and above in any Department or other administrative unit that is within LSBE.

b. The LSBE non-faculty staff representatives of the Senate shall include all persons holding full-time Professional and Administrative or full-time Civil Service appointments who are employees of LSBE.

c. The composition of the student representatives of the Senate shall be as follows:
two student representatives from each Department. All undergraduate student representatives of the Senate shall be required to continue to carry at least 12 credits per semester, and all graduate student representatives shall be required to maintain registration, or forfeit membership in the Senate.

SECTION 2. Voting Rights

Members of the Senate shall have equal voting rights, except that only Senate faculty representatives shall have voting rights on curriculum issues.

SECTION 3. Powers in General

a. The Senate shall have the authority and responsibility to make recommendations to the Dean on educational, curricular, and academic program policy matters concerning LSBE and its students.

b. The Senate shall have the responsibility of advising the Dean on such student concerns as the Senate deems appropriate.

SECTION 4. Senate Committees

a. The Senate, by appropriate Bylaws, may create standing committees charged with such responsibility as the Senate has the power to confer.

b. Members of the Senate and LSBE Board of Advisors may serve as voting members on Senate committees, unless specifically disallowed in the Bylaws.

SECTION 5. Officers

a. The Dean shall be Chairperson of the Senate.

b. A Vice-Chairperson shall be elected by the Senate from its membership. The term of office for the Vice-Chairperson shall be one year. He or she shall be elected at the first meeting of the academic year, and shall serve until his or her successor has been elected. In the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice-Chairperson shall preside at Senate meetings. In the absence of both the Chairperson and the Vice-Chairperson, such other person as the Senate shall designate shall preside.
c. The Chairperson shall appoint a Secretary of the Senate who shall be a member of the Senate. The Secretary shall record minutes of all meetings and shall maintain a file of all such minutes in the Dean's Office. Minutes of meetings of the Senate shall be submitted to all members of the Senate and made available to those members of the faculty, staff, and students as the Senate may from time to time direct. The Secretary shall maintain the official roster of the Senate members and the official roster of voting Senate members.

SECTION 6. Meetings

If warranted by agenda, at least one regular Senate meeting shall be held each academic term. Special meetings shall be called at the request of the Chairperson or any five voting members of the Senate. A minimum of a three-day written notice stating the agenda is required for all members. A quorum shall consist of a simple majority of the total voting membership of the Senate. Action of the Senate may be taken upon a simple majority vote of a quorum, except as specified in this Constitution and Bylaws.

ARTICLE VI. CONSTITUTIONAL INTERPRETATION

When questions of interpretation of this Constitution or Bylaws arise, they shall be resolved by the Constitution Committee.

ARTICLE VII. AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION

This Constitution can be amended by a two-thirds vote of all voting members of the Senate. Any proposed amendment shall be proposed and endorsed by at least three voting members of the Senate. The proposed amendment must be presented in writing to all voting members of the Senate no less than five days prior to a Senate meeting. It must be listed as an official agenda item and presented for information and possible revision at that meeting. After the proposed amendment has been presented for information and possible revision at a Senate meeting, the vote on the proposed amendment shall take place by mail ballot no sooner than five days after the adjournment of that meeting.
ARTICLE VIII. BYLAWS

Bylaws to this Constitution may be enacted, amended, or repealed in the same way as this Constitution can be amended, except that a simple majority vote is required.
ARTICLE I. SENATE RULES OF ORDER

Unless otherwise provided in the Labovitz School of Business and Economics (LSBE) Constitution or these Bylaws or provided by special rules of order adopted by the Senate, Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, shall be followed.

ARTICLE II. LSBE ELECTIONS

The Constitution Committee shall be responsible for administration of all elections for LSBE faculty and non-faculty staff.

ARTICLE III. SENATE COMMITTEES

1. The standing committees of the Senate shall consist of the following:

   Assessment Committee, Committee for Awards, Recognition and Excellence (CARE), Constitution Committee, Graduate Committee, Intellectual Contributions and Faculty Development Committee, Outreach Committee, Technology Committee, and Undergraduate Committee.

2. Standing committees and their chairpersons shall be nominated and approved by the LSBE Administrative Committee.

3. Unless otherwise specified, the term of membership on standing committees shall be two years for faculty and staff and one year for students commencing on September 1 of the year of initial appointment. Vacancies occurring within any academic year shall be filled by the Administrative Committee for the remainder of the unexpired term.

4. No person shall serve on more than two Senate Standing Committees at any given time.

ARTICLE IV. FUNCTIONS AND DUTIES OF STANDING COMMITTEES
1. The Assessment Committee is responsible for coordinating and monitoring assessment activities in LSBE. The Committee will be responsible for working with the LSBE standing committees and other appropriate groups and individuals to review and revise the LSBE’s Master Assessment Plan on a periodic basis, to ensure that appropriate assessment activities are identified and carried out, and to plan and implement ways to communicate findings of assessment activities to appropriate individuals and groups in LSBE as part of closing the loop. Finally, the Committee will make sure that all of LSBE’s degree programs have a system in place with direct measures of outcomes and that there is a record of program effectiveness and any proposed changes to improve program effectiveness.

2. The CARE Committee shall search out, facilitate, and recommend procedures for the conferment of all existing honors and awards to students, faculty, and alumni of programs housed in LSBE, and it shall recommend the creation of new honors and awards as seems appropriate. It shall also provide liaison between the Senate and student government committees which are active in student affairs. It shall investigate student concerns which are outside the jurisdiction of a single academic unit, make recommendations relative to these concerns to the Senate or its appropriate committees, and carry out such other duties as are assigned in these Bylaws.

3. The Constitution Committee shall serve as the final interpretation authority for this Constitution and Bylaws and shall recommend constitutional and bylaw changes when necessary. It shall settle jurisdictional disputes between Senate Committees, and shall serve as a grievance resolution committee for any issues not subject to grievance procedures of relevant collective bargaining agreements or subject to the standing grievance or appeals committees of the University. As such the Committee shall be available for informal consultation about potential grievance situations. The Committee shall also carry out such other duties as are assigned in these Bylaws.

4. The Graduate Committee is responsible for routine graduate curriculum matters including, but not limited to, consideration of individual course proposals that do not materially alter the nature and content of the graduate program. The Committee will also be responsible for making recommendations to the Senate on: (1) assessment and revision of current graduate programs; (2) development and assessment of new graduate programs; and (3) graduate student admissions, retention, advising, and graduation.

5. The Intellectual Contributions and Faculty Development Committee is responsible for monitoring research progress and making recommendations to the Senate on: (1) general research objectives and faculty research development programs; (2) research incentives and support; (3) faculty development incentives and support; (4) intellectual contributions and faculty development policies and activities in light of the new and continuously changing AACSB Standards; and (5) means for integration of research with teaching and service.

6. The Outreach Committee is responsible for reviewing, compiling and providing information about the programs, projects, activities and outcomes of the major outreach administrative units within LSBE and for completing other outreach responsibilities as may be assigned.

7. The Technology Committee is responsible for the evaluation of both proactive and reactive proposals and the development of recommendations to the Dean regarding the funding of LSBE student technology program proposals. The Committee is also responsible for working with the LSBE Technology Program Director to develop a consistent and coherent set of technology policy proposals for LSBE.

8. The Undergraduate Committee is responsible for routine undergraduate curriculum matters including, but not limited to, consideration of individual course proposals that do not materially alter the nature and content of undergraduate programs. The Committee will also be responsible for making recommendations to the Senate on: (1) assessment and revision of current undergraduate programs; (2) development and assessment of new undergraduate programs; and (3) undergraduate student admissions, retention, advising, and graduation.
ARTICLE V. SPECIAL COMMITTEES

The Senate may establish special committees to make recommendations on special topics of concern to LSBE, subject to the following limitations:

1. A special committee shall have a specified period of existence and shall be considered disassembled upon acceptance of its report by the Senate.

2. The Senate shall provide each special committee with an explicit written statement of its charge, expected period of duration, and interim reporting requirements at the time it appoints the special committee.

ARTICLE VI. COMMITTEE RULES

1. All standing committees of the Senate shall meet at least once each academic year.

2. All Senate committees shall keep records of their meetings and proceedings. Copies of these records shall be sent to each member of the Senate, shall be placed on file in the LSBE Dean’s Office, and shall be available for inspection, subject to All-University restrictions.

3. Each standing committee of the Senate shall report on its activities once each semester at the last regularly scheduled meeting of the Senate for that semester by submitting a written progress report. These progress reports shall be distributed to the voting members of the Senate by the Secretary.

4. Any standing committee of the Senate shall be required at the request of the Chair, or upon simple majority vote of the Senate members present and voting, to report to the Senate the status of any matter then being considered by any such standing committee.